is back and it's bigger - bigger and better

This month, the UK's capital brings together the best beauty brands in the business, for a show featuring two days filled with exclusive industry talks and exciting salon solutions.

KAYLEIGH BAKER REPORTS

The Olympia Beauty Trade Exhibition comes to London this month on Sunday 18 and Monday 19, in what can only be described as an exciting celebration of the best brands in beauty. As the spotlight on the beauty calendar, this year promises opportunities to bring together education, trends, products, development events and come what may.

For any one, the show offers unparalleled growth opportunities on the Beauty Show. The Olympia Beauty Trade Exhibition is the most exciting event in the beauty industry. Add to this the new and exclusive Beauty Show Talent Gala, which will feature the best talent in the industry. It's not just the show that's exciting, it's the products and services that will be on display. The show is the place to see the best of the industry, and the place to see the best of the industry.

At the Olympia Beauty Trade Exhibition, you'll find the latest in beauty technology, from the most advanced laser treatments to the latest in hair care. You'll also find the best in beauty education, from the most advanced courses to the latest in hair care. The show is the place to see the best of the industry, and the place to see the best of the industry.
